

Workshops 2009 – 2010

(workshops include all supplies & a light lunch)

2009

November 7th

Lino Cut Christmas Cards with Linda Haas $150

Create one of a kind Christmas cards that are a gift in themselves. Includes everything you need to make your own card. The carving tool, baren and additional piece of lino are yours to take home!

November 13th – 15th

Introduction Silkscreen with Nathan Feller $350

This three day workshop will teach you everything you need to know about silkscreen. Understand and learn all of the basics to create prepare and print your own work of art!

2010

February 6th

Introduction to Akua Water-based Inks with Irene $125

This is a must for all printmakers. You will be impressed with the hidden magic using this non-toxic ink.

February 13th

Photopolymer Etching with Linda Haas & Big John $160

Experience and understand photopolymer etching techniques for the beginner or the professional artist. Great for photographers!

February 27th – 28th

Monotype Creations with Irene $275

The most painterly method among printmaking techniques will be revealed using various mark making tools. Additive, reductive and trace methods will be explored by layering color, texture and paper to create one-of-a-kind prints!

March 12th

Silkscreen in Pastel with Nathan Feller $200

No previous printmaking skills needed. Learn how to use pencils and soft pastels to create exquisite monotypes. This unique printing process produces a soft image not unlike a pastel drawing using printmaking methods.

Call to reserve your space today.

623.465.7728

e-mail us at jilinkstudios@msn.com

www.jilinkstudios.com

